

Crash Course US History 4:

The Quakers, the Dutch and the Ladies

1. How much did the Lenape Native people get for the island of Manhattan according to legend?

2. What did New Amsterdam become? _____
3. Which colony was known as “the best poor man’s country”? _____
4. Though incredibly tolerant what did the Quakers oppose vehemently? _____
5. What was the most famous fraud of Colonial America? _____
6. Why did the Quakers have to resort to tricks rather than just violence like other colonies?

7. What colony came to be the buffer between the English colonies and Spanish controlled Florida?

8. Who was the Governor of Virginia at the time of the Mystery document? _____
9. Why was Bacon mad at the Governor?

10. What were all of the following colonies a part of: Connecticut, Plymouth, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, New York, East Jersey, and West Jersey?

11. What event in England reversed this combo-platter of colonies? _____
12. The English Toleration Act of 1690 allowed all Protestants to do what? _____
13. What 2 ideas were closely intertwined in early colonial America?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
14. What 2 types of goods were in great demand in the colonies (supplied by local artisans)?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
15. What job did George Washington’s father and grandfather hold?
