

Crash Course US History 5:

The Seven Years War & the Great Awakening

1. How long did the “seven years war” really last? _____
2. What was the basic motivation of this war? _____
3. According to ‘mercantilism’ why would the government want to regulate the economy?

4. What always has to be increased for this mercantilism to work? _____
5. Who had a huge empire in North America (well on paper)? _____
6. The governor of Virginia gave a huge land grant to what company? _____
7. What fraction of his men did George Washington lose at Fort Necessity? _____
8. The event where the French Acadians were kicked out to starve/die is called what?

9. What treaty ended the ‘French and Indian War’? _____
10. Who does John Green see as the real losers of the war? _____
11. Pontiac’s Rebellion was successful in disrupting what settlement? _____
12. The Proclamation Line of 1763 made the territory west of the Appalachian Mountains the land of what group? _____
13. Classical liberalism meant that government was meant to protect what of the citizens?

14. According to Green, the Great Awakening was when colonists went from being very religious to what? _____