

Crash Course US History 6:

Taxes & Smuggling, Prelude to the Revolution

1. What two things does Green say the revolution were not about? _____
2. What did colonists do to avoid taxes? _____
3. What was the most upsetting of the acts (passed in 1765)? _____
4. What was the name of the group of women who wanted boycotting colonists to rely upon homespun production? _____
5. The Boston Massacre was not a massacre but started as a what? _____
6. Instead of backing down after the Boston Tea Party the British passed what?

7. Which colony did not send a delegate to the Constitutional convention? _____
8. The Continental Congress sent what to the King prior to ever sending any Declaration of Independence?

9. The popular document written by Thomas Paine which was hugely popular at the time was called what?

10. How many people attended Paine's funeral (since he was kind of cranky about Christianity)? ___