

Crash Course US History 15: 19th Century Reforms

1. Of the Utopian communities which wanted to separate themselves from the new world of industrialization, the most famous of which was what?
2. What was a fatal flaw of the Shakers (in terms of keeping the group going)?
Living in nice houses
Celibacy
Dancing
3. Another big group to come out of this religious fervor was that of the Latter Day Saints or what common name for this group?
4. Why does Green believe that the Brookdale Farm failed?
5. Most of the reform movements of this time period were linked to religion and this was referred to as what?
6. These religious awakenings were all denominations of what branch of Christianity?
7. The reform movements grew out of the belief that perfection could be achieved both personally and community wide by removing temptations to have a truly free society thus leading to what particular reform platform?
Temperance
Prison Reform
Cutting out sugar
8. What groups of people are going to have a real issue with these reform movements?
9. Public school houses which were led by the ideas of Horace Mann were called what?
10. What was the biggest reform movement of the 19th Century?
11. What was the idea of the Colonizationists?
12. What is the name of the colony that was waiting?
13. William Lloyd Garrison was so anti-slavery; he burned what in protest that it was a pact with the devil?
14. What did the radical abolitionists rename the statehouse bell in Philadelphia?
15. What law/rule prohibited members of Congress from reading or calling for the emancipation of slaves?